

Singing BOOK 3 Sherlock

Val Whitlock & Shirley Court

Geppetto Made a Puppet

Verse

Geppetto made a puppet,
He carved him out of wood.
He wanted most of all to have a son.
And ev'ry one could hear him,
As he hammered and he sawed.
He worked away from dawn till day was done.

With a tap tap here and a tap tap there,
The puppet was begun.
But when at last the head was made the boy stuck out his tongue!

Verse

With a tap tap here and a tap tap there,
From fingers down to toes.
But then the naughty puppet punched his master on the nose!

Verse

With a tap tap here and a tap tap there,
Came elbow, knee and chin.
But then the naughty puppet kicked Geppetto on the shin!

Verse

With a tap tap here and a tap tap there,
When came the legs and feet,
Pinocchio jumped up and ran off quickly down the street!

Lin Marsh

BOOSEY & HAWKES

Boosey & Hawkes Music Publishers Ltd
www.boosey.com