"... "Mass" re-emerged as the moving and visionary piece it's always been -- arguably the best thing Bernstein ever wrote."

The Washington Post

"Bernstein left nothing of himself out of "Mass," and like the man who wrote it, the piece demands to be noticed. ...beneath the original dramatic conception, the creative exuberance, the showbiz glitter and the ear-catching set numbers is a sophisticated, carefully controlled piece of musical craftsmanship that repays close scrutiny. ...Yes, Bernstein could manipulate a 12-tone row with the best of them.

"...[an] extravagant, exuberant and endlessly inventive creation..."

The New York Times
