When I Was Small

When I was small I'd stamp my feet,
While shopping with my Mum.
And if I didn't get my way,
I'd throw a big tantrum!

But now I big I'm sensible,
And really rather nice!
I shop around for quality,
And always check the price.

When I was small I'd eat a worm,
Or maybe lick a snail.
I'd stuff my mouth with mud and grass,
And dirty snow and hail.

But now I'm big I'm sensible,
And really rather good.
I only eat the veg'tables,
As all good gard'ners should!

When I was small I'd stuff my nose,
With squishy rice and peas.
Then toffee yoghurt in my hair,
And baked beans on my knees.

But now I'm big I'm sensible,
And really rather great.
I eat just like the King and Queen,
With knife, fork, spoon and plate.

Now look at me, see how I've grown.
I'm wiser, hip and cool!
I don't do all those childish things,
Well not while I'm at school!
