

Part A - take part

Take part in an arts activity and develop your skills. You can work on your own or as part of a group.

Top Tip

Get inspiration and ideas from Arts Award Voice www.artsawardvoice.com

Describe the arts activity you are going to take part in?

Record your arts activity here:

You can add photos or film footage of you taking part

Part B - be the audience

In this part you experience the arts as an audience member and record your response

Top Tip

The arts experience may be in your school/centre, an arranged visit or something you see or do on your own or with others.

Examples of arts experiences include:

- ✓ Exhibitions
- ✓ Plays
- ✓ Gigs
- ✓ Arts festivals
- ✓ Comedy shows
- ✓ Performances and fashion shows
- ✓ Studio/backstage tours
- ✓ Online events
- ✓ Films/radio plays
- ✓ Public art

Top Tip

Check out the Arts Award Supporter map for offers of things to see in your local area! www.artsaward.org.uk/supporter

What did you experience as an audience member?

Top Tip

Focus on the creative experience not just your journey or the food!

What did you like best and why?

Part C - arts inspiration

Is there an artist or crafts person who inspires you or whose work you really like? Find out about their work and life and summarise what you found out

My arts inspiration is

Why they inspire me

What they make or do and how

Top Tip

why not include an example of their work

Part D - arts skills share

This part is about beginning to be an arts leader and passing on your arts skills to others

A few ideas...

- ⚡ leading a 'creative' session with a friend or group of people
- 📄 a presentation followed by questions and answers
- 📺 an online tutorial or 'how to' guide
- 📢 supporting an arts workshop by running an exercise as part of a drama, dance or singing workshop

Top Tip:

This part is more than a performance or presentation it's about helping other people to learn from you and your experience.

Choosing your activity

What arts skill would you like to share?

Top Tip

Make sure it shows your creative side

Now you are ready to plan your skills share!