

Singing Sherlock Book 2

by Val Whitlock and Shirley Court

Roller Ghoster

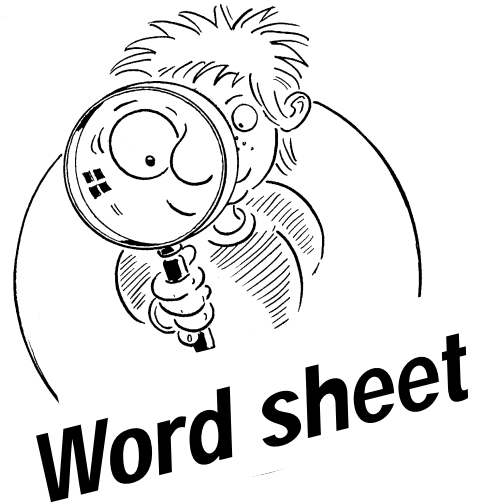

We're not scared, we're terrified!
Everything is churning up and down inside
No one warned us such a ride
Would be guaranteed to make us feel sick!
We're going up, oh, we're going down, oh
And then we stop (clap clap clap clap)
To look around (look left, look right)
We plant our feet (stamp stamp)
On solid ground
And now we're feeling OK
We're moving on right away
To have a go on another great ride!

Let us just remind you
Keep on moving, look ahead
Something's right behind you!
Maybe you should have stayed in bed!
You feel a chill, you get a scare
You turn around, there's nothing there!
So if you hear a rattling of bone
Then maybe it's your own just rattling with fear!

[repeat first section]

Optional second voice part for first section

Riding a roller coaster
Riding a ghost train
We're riding on almost everything in sight tonight!
We're going up, oh
We're going down
And then we stop (clap, clap, clap, clap)
And look around (look left, look right)
We plant our feet (stamp stamp)
On solid ground
We're feeling great
It's not too late to try another ride!
