

Singing Sherlock Book 2

by Val Whitlock and Shirley Court

Times Must Be changing

Chorus

Times must be changing, take a look around
Every single picture, every single sound
can be changed at the click of a mouse click click
We've got the latest technology all around the house
Times must be changing and here's the proof it's never too late

1. Grandma's into shopping on the internet
The most clued-up pensioner you'll see!
She's really cracked the system, she never gets stuck
She simply logs on to Tesco and next time you look, arriving at the door in a forklift truck
There'll be a pile of pies and pizzas for your tea!

Chorus

2. Bleep bleep Grandad's sending messages bleep
There's a text for every pensioner in town bleep bleep
And when he picks up his mobile you can't hear a thing
For all the ping brr ting phwt it's such an awful din!
Why on earth did we encourage him, it really is a sin
Because the brr boing pong get us down!

Final chorus

Times must be changing, take a look around
Every single picture, every single sound
can be changed at the click of a mouse click click
We've got the latest technology all around the house
Times must be changing and don't forget it's never too late!

Optional second voice part to choruses 2 and 3

Moving on, the times are changing and we're moving on We're rearranging every tock, every tick, every byte, every click
So refresh your mind, don't be left behind!
Moving on, the times are changing and it's great!
