

Old MacDonald's Recorder Book 1

chord games

A chord is formed when two or more notes are played at the same time. A lot of the music we hear today is based on chords. In this game, divide into four groups. Group 1 plays the tune while the other three groups play chords. If you listen carefully you should hear the chords giving a different character to each bar of the tune.

A Game of Chords

